Public comment is allowed on agenda items before the Board takes action and will generally occur near the start of the meeting. Comments are limited to three minutes per person. Each speaker will only be given one chance to speak. The Board is not obligated to respond to public comments during the meeting and generally will not do so. The Board Chair (or the person presiding over the meeting) maintains order and enforces decorum during meetings. Speakers may not engage in obscene acts or speech, threats, or disorderly conduct.
